When Grief Gets Physical dealing with physical grief

February 17th, 2019 - There is simply no way to anticipate what grief feels like It is one of those experiences that you can describe to someone but it is impossible to really understand it until you are forced to live with it

AGGRESSION Why children lash out and what to do

February 18th, 2019 - Your child needs you to help them change rather than demand they change An aggressive child is a stressed child but aggression is the behaviour that generally elicits the least care and empathy from adults but sadly itâ€™s when they need our sensitivity the most If we could respond to very out of balance behaviour with some of the same qualities that we respond to physical illness weâ€™d

Grieving the Death of a Sibling Home What s Your Grief

February 17th, 2019 - Overshadowed Grief This is just a guess but I suspect a lack of sibling grief resources exists because sibling grief is often overshadowed People simply cannot fathom the out of order ness of a parent having to bury a child so when this is the case their thoughts and concerns often immediately go to the parent's grief

Healing and Meditation Sessions Home

February 17th, 2019 - In this last chapter of my book I would like to describe the Christmas celebrations that we were able to experience with Bruno Gröning It is certainly due to a remarkable spiritual guidance that I am able to write all of this down in my own peaceful and beloved home precisely at Christmas 1998 and therefore more than forty years after the events " as a gift so to speak dedicated to
